INCORPORATED.

HOT TIME IN GRACEY AT COLORED BARBECUE

Broken Up By Pistol Duel Between Women In A Crowded Room And Many Shot And Injured In The Stampede.

The colored population had a barbecue in a factory near the I. C. depot at Gracey Saturday night, that broke up in a stampede caused by two women shooting at each other and in the fusillade five or six persons were shot and wounded and many others injured.

Near the rear door of the factory is a large sinkhole ten feet in depth and fifteen feet across. The house was full and as the crowd stampeded many fell headlong into the gaping mouth of the sinkhole and others were crowded upon them until the hole was filled to the top and the last to come out ran over the bodies of the wriggling mass of screaming humanity, to places of safety.
Many leaped from the windows and one window became choked with several boys trying to get out at once and into this mass a heavy negro named Pink Dabney, plunged, knocking the boys far outside, except one whose clothing caught on a nail until he was torn loose by Dabney's jumping on him as he hung suspended under the window. Inside many who could not get out threw themselves flat on the floor until the pistols were emptied.

As near as it can be learned the trouble started when Frank Gardner's wife caught Frank talking to Minnie Morris and before the men could prevent it, the two women were shooting at each other, and Gardner's wife is said to have taken one shot at him. Although firing at close range, neither of the combatants was injured, the bullets all hitting those not participating.

Following is a list of those worst hurt:

Annie May Parrish, aged 15, shot in the hip.
John Whitlock, boy, shot in the leg.
Archie Gaither, shot in both legs.
Porter Smoot, shot in the arm.
Joe Sharp, slight flesh wound.
Frank Hawkins, boy, grazed by bullet on ankle.
Ada Green, arm and collar-bone broken by fall in the sinkhole.
Another woman name not learned, back hurt in falling into the sink-hole.

It took some time after the fight was over to extricate the fifteen or twenty persons from the hole and many of them lost articles of clothing in the struggle to get out. The ground around the hole was trampled like a herd of buffaloes had passed over it and hats, ribbons, neckties, collars and bits of clothing were scattered around the hole, inside and outside. None of the wounded will die from the injuries.

The Green woman is more seriously injured than any of the others. She has been brought to this city to receive surgical attention.

Marshal Herman Cox on Sunday arrested Frank Gardner and his wife's brother, named Muncney, but the latter claims that the only part he took was to try to stop his sister from shooting.

House Party.

A very pleasant house party of ten days, given by Miss Grace Sallee

Wadlington of Cadiz, Ky.; Miles dolph Dade and Frank Gary of near Miss Sallee's host of friends daily joining the guests in a round of good times made their stay pass only too quickly.

ing his own living as a farm hand

Might Be Dead Today.

Granden City, Kan.—In a letter from Mrs. James Hamner, of this city, she says, "I firmly believe that I would not be alive today, if it were not for Cardui. I had been a sufferer from womanly troubles all my life, until I found that great remedy. I feel that I can't praise it too highly." Are you a woman, suffering from some of the troubles, to which a woman is peculiarly liable? If so, why not try Cardui, the woman's tonic? You can rely on Cardui. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and acts gently but surely, without bad after-effects. 'Twill help you. Ask your druggist.

Miss Annie Smithson is at Sebree.

JIM BRADLEY DIES IN CELL

Asked To Be Allowed To Lie Down Awhile.

WHEN CALLED WAS DEAD.

Was A Well Kown Butcher In Various Local Shops.

Jim Bradley, a well known butcher in local meat shops, died yesterday morning in the city jail. He came in the office about 7:30 a. m., and told Chief Roper that he was feeling bad, and wanted to lie down for a few minutes. The chief allowed him to go back to one of the cells and lay down on a cot. About 10:15 the chief carried an offender back to lock him up and wishing the cell Bradley was in went in to arouse him. He found him covered up in the blanket, dead. The prisoner in the next cell said that about 9:30 he had heard him groan two or three times, and complain about his stomach cramping. He said that was the last heard from him.

Dr. J. W. Harned was summoned immediately, and gave the opinion that heart trouble was the cause.
The coroner corroborated the verdict. There was no signs of inebri-acy.

A search of his pockets revealed nothing of importance. The deceased was about 45 years of age.
His father is Kirk Bradley and lives in Todd county. He leaves no family or property. He carried a small amount of life insurance.

Harry and Karl Keach have returned from a trip to Owensboro in their auto. Their pedometer showed 460 miles of travel.

Miss Mamie Lee, of Elkton, is visiting Miss Parrent.
